Luke 17:11-19 – (NIV UK)

¹¹ Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. ¹² As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance ¹³ and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!"

¹⁴ When he saw them, he said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests". And as they went, they were cleansed.

¹⁵ One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. ¹⁶ He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷ Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?" ¹⁸ Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹ Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."

Galatians 3:17-28 – (NIV UK)

¹⁷ What I mean is this: The law, introduced 430 years later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on the promise; but God in his grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.

¹⁹ Why, then, was the law given at all? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. The law was given through angels and entrusted to a mediator. ²⁰ A mediator, however, implies more than one party; but God is one.

²¹ Is the law, therefore, opposed to the promises of God? Absolutely not! For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law. ²² But Scripture has locked up everything under the control of sin, so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe.

²³ Before the coming of this faith, we were held in custody under the law, locked up until the faith that was to come would be revealed. ²⁴ So the law was our guardian until Christ came that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵ Now that this faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.

²⁶ So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith, ²⁷ for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. ²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Operation Christmas Child Shoe Box Appeal.

In previous years, Specs Savers in Penarth have acted as a drop-off point for Operation Christmas Child Christmas Shoe Box appeal. They are not able to do this this year, so we have arranged that donations can be left at our church reception between 9.30 am and 12.00 from November 1st to 6th December. More information from Pastor Owen.

Christmas Lights - 19th November

We are again involved in the Christmas Lights event in Penarth. We will have our interactive manger and will give out free tea, coffee and hot chocolate as well as flyers for Gospel Street and our Christmas services. We need volunteers to help set up, to dress up as nativity characters, to make and give out drinks, to give out leaflets. We will also need lots of mince pies and most importantly prayer. Please see Ann or Tim Hackett to volunteer.

Riding Lights Theatre Company

On Thursday 23rd November at 7.30 pm the professional and well known theatre company Riding Lights will be at Tabs with their highly acclaimed production, Gospel Street. This is not only great entertainment but a mission opportunity. Please put it in your diary and think about who you can invite. Tickets £10 concessions £8. Tickets are available from Tim Hackett or direct from Riding Lights via the telephone number or web address on the flyer.
