The parable of the good Samaritan

²⁵ On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he asked, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?'

²⁶ 'What is written in the Law?' he replied. 'How do you read it?'

²⁷ He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind"; and, "Love your neighbour as yourself."

²⁸ 'You have answered correctly,' Jesus replied. 'Do this and you will live.'

²⁹ But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?'

³⁰ In reply Jesus said: 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half-dead. ³¹ A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. ³² So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³ But a Samaritan, as he travelled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him.

³⁴ He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him.

³⁵ The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said, "and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have."

³⁶ 'Which of these three do you think was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?'

³⁷ The expert in the law replied, 'The one who had mercy on him.' Jesus told him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Acts 15:36-41 – (NIV UK)

Disagreement between Paul and Barnabas

³⁶ Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, 'Let us go back and visit the believers in all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing.' ³⁷ Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark, with them, ³⁸ but Paul did not think it wise to take him, because he had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work. ³⁹ They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, ⁴⁰ but Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the believers to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹ He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

family : news

We extend our love and sympathy to Rob Murray-Dickson on the recent death of his wife Beryl. Please remember him and the family in your prayers at this time.

Jo Lockyer has moved to Holme Tower in Penarth. She is struggling greatly with her breathing, and would value your prayers for her, Dylan and Morgan and her mum and dad, Pam and Steve.

We continue to pray for those going through treatment for cancer

Please also remember in your prayers those members who are housebound or living in a nursing home and unable to attend worship or meetings regularly.

Praise God for the safe arrival of Elizabeth Sian Latham, born at 4 pm on Friday 16th November weighing 6lb 4oz. First daughter to Pam and Ben and a first grandchild for John & Erica Stansfield

Preaching Engagements:

Julian Haines is at Penarth Salvation Army am
Ann Niblett is at Summerhill BC, Newport am
Anne Morse is at Ponthir BC am and Hebron Hall afternoon

Crèche

Crèche has been struggling to find helpers and as a result we are unable to run it every week, leaving it to the parents to look after their own children, often leading them to miss out on a much needed break and a sermon. There are also a few parents who attend alone, who would not be able to manage more than one under school age child throughout the entire service (even one is hard) and who are on the verge of considering it far easier to just stay at home, leave their children at home or find a Church with a crèche. Please would you consider offering to help out in crèche? There is no formal lesson plan. All that is required is a willingness to put toys out before Church (and put them away after) and play with a small number of lovely little people, with the help of another safe guarded adult. If we have enough volunteers, you may only be called upon once or twice per term. If you can help, please contact Hannah Sylvester in Church or in the crèche room or on mobile: 07900 135106. Thank you.

Hospital Hampers

For the last 5 years we have provided hospital hampers to the wards at Llandough to demonstrate God's generous love for all of us and our appreciation of the staff who sacrifice their Christmas to care for us. We need about 36 hampers. If small groups could do approximately 3 each and bring them to church by 16th December that would be much appreciated. If you are not in a group and want to contribute, donations of money can be given to Tim Hackett and they will put a hamper or two together using that.

Thanks

A huge thank you to everyone who helped at the Christmas Lights event. We spoke to lots of people and gave out loads of leaflets. Two people have already been in touch, as a result, regarding the comedy night.

Paradise Run

With the advent of the colder weather we would welcome donations of (new & old) sleeping bags & blankets in addition to pots of porridge (or money!). Following on from the success of the last 2 years we will be giving Christmas gifts on our December (7th) run using small present bags which we will fill. We need warm men's socks & gloves, shower gel, small boxes of chocolates & a written Christmas card for each bag, If you would like to help or need more details contact Deborah Rees in church or on 07916 669 529 alternatively Nick Tsitsinakis or John Squire.

Comedians & Carols

Come along for a wonderful evening of festive laughter. Saturday 8th December here at Tabs, at 7:30 pm. Featuring professional comedians Tony Vino <https://youtu.be/9PdvpEiER18> and Stephen Cookson <https://youtu.be/laZtYmNsgSE>. Tickets are £7.50, available from Ann and Tim Hackett, 029 2221 7760 or 07776 216 254
